

General Education Committee

March 22, 2007, 2:00 p.m., Provost's Conference Room

In Attendance: Drs. Sarah Blackwell, Tristan Denley, Maurice Eftink, Rich Forgette, Charles Gates, Tim Hall, Margie Hobbs, Glenn Hopkins, Jeanette Martin, Murray Nabors, and Patrick Quinn

Absent: Dr. Johnny Lott

1. Dr. Margie Hobbs reviewed the recent history of the routines used to assess general education learning outcomes for UM students. A variety of related issues were discussed, including whether the University should expand its use of the MAPP exam and/or whether the University should identify and assess selected courses in majors that fulfill specific general education learning objectives, such as oral communication and critical thinking.
2. The Committee adjourned at 3:45 p.m.
