From the Chancellor

Welcome to the University of Mississippi as the newest members of our talented and dedicated faculty. I’m grateful you’re here and excited about all that you will contribute to our community of scholars. Your knowledge, insights, and talents form the foundation of our mission, and we’re committed to helping you grow as a scholar, researcher, creator, and member of the university community.

You will soon discover that our national profile for academics and research is built upon a supportive, respectful working environment that promotes collective success. Our Academic Affairs leaders, your department chairs, and your colleagues will support you as you provide life-changing educational opportunities for our students, advance your career, strengthen our institution, and improve lives and society in the process.

It’s a great privilege to serve as your chancellor, and I want you to know that I’m available to you. Please reach out to my office if you have any questions or if you’d like to schedule a time to visit or discuss opportunities. Thank you for joining our campus community — we’re excited that you’re now an important part of the story of the University of Mississippi.

Sincerely,

Glenn F. Boyce, Chancellor

From the Provost

Welcome to the University of Mississippi. We are glad that you are joining our vibrant community of scholars that is committed to educating and serving the citizens of our state, nation, and world. The work you do here will be incredibly meaningful. Quite simply, it changes lives. We are dedicated to fostering an atmosphere that unleashes your creativity. The University of Mississippi is a better place when you succeed. We are committed to nurturing a culture that respects the dignity of every person. This is fundamental to our community’s values and is critical to fairness, civility, integrity, academic honesty, and academic freedom. While we face challenges and modifications to our operations due to the pandemic, we are still pursuing our mission to educate, discover, create, and serve. We are glad you are here and look forward to the great things you will accomplish as members of our community.

Sincerely,

Noel E. Wilkin, Provost
